Dear Ms. Ohlemiller:

Best and Final Offer (BAFO) #001 request for Alternatives to Abortion Program Services was issued on September 27, 2016. On September 29, 2016, an e-mail was issued by Jason Kolks advising Nurses for Newborns the BAFO #001 request for RFPs30034901700042 was indefinitely extended. However, this letter shall constitute a second official request by the State of Missouri to enter into competitive negotiations with your company. The BAFO #001 response is due by the date specified herein for BAFO #002.

Attached hereto is a new complete copy of the RFP that includes changes to the RFP as a result of the BAFO #001 request as well as additional changes to the RFP as a result of BAFO #002 request.

The RFP includes Best and Final Offer #002 (BAFO #002) as the cover page. Be sure to have an authorized representative of your organization complete and sign the BAFO #001 and BAFO #002 cover pages and return with your BAFO response.

Another attachment is the BAFO #002 Request List which supersedes the BAFO Request List issued with BAFO #001. The BAFO #002 Request List includes a list of areas identified in your proposal as concerns, areas requiring clarifications, and areas of deficiency, which may not comply with the requirements of the RFP.

In your response to BAFO #002, you may make any modification, addition, or deletion deemed necessary to your proposal. However, it is not necessary for you to resubmit your entire proposal. Only the signed BAFO #002 Forms and any portions of your proposal that are being revised as a result of this request for a Best and Final Offer need to be submitted.

Furthermore, please understand that your response to this BAFO request is your final opportunity to ensure that (1) all mandatory requirements of the RFP have been met, (2) all RFP requirements are adequately described since all areas of the proposal are subject to evaluation, and (3) this is your best offer, including a reduction or other change to pricing. Also, ensure your response to this BAFO request addresses the latest version of each paragraph/exhibit of the RFP.

Pricing Note

Nurses for Newborns anticipates serving 180 (non-duplicated) pregnant women and their infants during a one year time period. Based upon the level of service in past years and funding availability, NFN projects serving 60 women a month with non-residential services. Although a price for Residential Care Services is included as required on the Pricing Page, it is anticipated that any client served by NFN that requires residential services will be referred to an organization that provides these services and no funds from the ATA program would be used by NFN to purchase these services. Annual direct cost for the non-residential services is anticipated to be $432,000. Indirect administrative and support cost necessary for the delivery of services will be at 8% of this amount, resulting in a Maximum Annual Total Price for the 12 month period of $466,560.

If fewer funds were made available through the ATA program, NFN would need to reduce the services that would be provided. If awarded at a lower rate than requested, NFN would still participate with the ATA program but could not do so for less than the Minimum Annual Total Price required for services of $220,000.

PERSONNEL

EXHIBIT BVENDOR INFORMATION

The vendor should provide the following information about the vendor's organization:

1. Provide a brief company history, including the founding date and number of years in business as currently constituted.

Nurses For Newborns (NFN) was established in 1992 by Sharon Rohrbach; an RN who was appalled by the increasing deaths of infants at St. Louis area hospitals. Sharon felt called to make a difference in the lives of infants by using a nurse home-visiting model that serves at risk populations in an effort to prevent infant mortality, child abuse and neglect. As well as providing medical care for infants NFN nurses began to connect families with other resources essential to the health of the infant, the family, and the community and began a series of programs to meet specific community needs. NFN began the Safe Beginnings program in 1992 to serve infants whose family members had a psychiatric diagnosis, and quickly created two more programs in 1993: Bridge to the Future (for medically fragile infants) and The Teen Parent Program. In 1997, Bright Futures was created to answer a growing need for services for families facing severe poverty and lack of access to care. In fiscal year 1998/1999 NFN joined the family of United Way agencies. In 2001, agency services were initiated in Nashville, Tennessee. In 2005, NFN joined the Maternal Child and Family Health Coalition in a federally funded initiative called Healthy Start in order to address health disparities in North St. Louis. In 2007 NFN began a five-year federal demonstration project called Health Hearts and Homes that linked nurse visitation with responsible fatherhood and healthy relationship services to prevent child maltreatment. With the assistance of the Sisters of Mercy, in 2009 the agency initiated services in Springfield Missouri. Also in late 2009, with the assistance of the Missouri Foundation for Health, NFN began its Health Literacy program that utilized mothers of two immigrant communities to enhance the language and cultural literacy of its home visiting services. In 2010 NFN was awarded CUHRP funding to pilot a demonstration research project in partnership with area universities and regional funding sources in order to enhance home safety for infants. NFN has been recognized for innovation and service quality throughout the agency's history. Perhaps most notably, the federal Administration for Health Care Research and Quality has recognized NFN's program as a model of innovative practice, including it in the Administration's Innovative Practices listing since 2007. In 2013 and 2014, NFN was awarded contracts with the federal Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program for services in Tennessee and Missouri. This program provides rigorous evaluation of programs that may warrant funding as a federally recognized evidence based home visiting program. NFN has received state and national awards such as the "Use Your Life" Award from Oprah's Angel Network which was presented to the agency's founder, the Paul Simon Award from Signature Health for NFN's innovative use of information technology, the Ascension Health Partnership in Ministry Award, the Robert Wood Johnson Community Service Award, and the national Premier Cares Award for agency effectiveness and innovation. NFN has received local awards from Focus St. Louis Civic Progress, St. Louis Children's Hospital, Cardinal-Glennon Hospital, and the Chambers of Commerce from Afton and Webster Groves – Shrewsbury, the Stellar Performance Award from Variety, St. Louis, the Community Champion Award from the Institute for Family Medicine, and the Missouri Public Health Association for its Group Merit Award. In its 25 years of operations, Nurses for Newborns has provided services for over 65,000 infants and their families with 99% of those evaluated to be free of any substantiated report of child abuse and neglect.

2. Describe the nature of the vendor's business, type of services performed, etc. Identify the vendor's website address, if any.

Nurses for Newborns is a non-profit community agency founded in Missouri that provides nurse home visiting and related services for over 3,000 newborn infants and their caregivers annually. The website for Nurses for Newborns is: www.nfnf.org

3. Provide a list of and a short summary of information regarding the vendor's current contracts for similar services.

Nurses for Newborns has provided nurse home visiting services to over 50,000 Missouri families over the past 25 years and has enjoyed the partnership of federal, state, and local government as well as others who pursued contractual arrangements. Major contracts include:

State of Missouri: The agency's first contracts (25 years ago) were with Missouri's Children's Trust Fund. NFN has maintained contracts with this important child abuse prevention fund throughout most of the agency's history. Nurses for Newborns participated in other state home visitation contracts as these were introduced. Most importantly for this current opportunity, NFN has been a partner with the Alternatives to Abortion program since 2002 and maintains a current contract with the program, providing services to over 110 families in the current contract year. NFN has also been a provider for the Stay at Home Parent and the Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention programs in the past, and has been a provide of two State of Missouri Home Visitation Contracts providing service to hundreds of Missouri families in multiple counties. at the current time.

Federal Contracts: Nurses for Newborns has provided nurse visitation services for several federal contracts. NFN was the primary service partner in the St. Louis Healthy Start program. Currently, NFN is a participating provider for the federal Maternal, Infant, and Early Childhood Home Visiting Program that serves infants and their caregivers in the city of St. Louis.

County Contracts: Nurses for Newborns has provided nurse visitation services for the special municipal or county funds that address the needs of children in the city of St. Louis (Mental Health Board), St. Louis County (Children's Service Fund) and St. Charles County (Community and Children's Resource Board), and the Lincoln County Resource Board.

Federal, state, and municipal contracts are detailed on the Exhibit D forms that are included with this text.

Other Contracts: In addition to the major contracts noted above, Nurses for Newborns maintains contractual arrangements with the current Missouri Health Net Health Maintenance Organizations, and with special research/service partnerships with St. Louis University, Washington University and Vanderbilt University. These partnerships provide funding and research expertise to enhance services and build knowledge in the field of home visitation and the prevention of child abuse.

4. List, identify, and provide reasons for each contract/client gained and lost in the past two (2) years.

Nurses for Newborns received two new contracts for home visitation that included parent education and family support during the past two years: The Lincoln County Resource Board began supporting NFN services in 2012 and the St. Louis Mental Health Board awarded a new contract to NFN in 2014. No contract was "lost" but the Healthy Start program concluded its cycle and a second MIECHV contract was not re-funded. Other grants during the time period ended and new grants were secured to help support agency services.

5. In the table below, indicate if the vendor is a not-for-profit entity that promotes one or more of the following four (4) purposes established by Congress under 42 U.S.C. Section 601 of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. If a not-for-profit entity, describe past experience relative to the four (4) purposes.

6. Describe the structure of the organization including any board of directors, partners, top departmental management, corporate organization, corporate trade affiliations, any parent/subsidiary affiliations with other firms, etc.

NFN is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is therefore governed by a voluntary Board of Directors that is comprised of representative members of the community served by the organization. All corporate powers are vested in and exercised by the Board of Directors, which is responsible to see that the mission of the agency is carried out. The Board of Directors, currently numbering 27 members, includes the following positions on the Executive Committee: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Immediate Past President (Ex-officio member). The Bylaws of the agency describe the composition and responsibilities of the Board. Board members generally are limited to serving two three-year terms. The Board meets monthly at regularly scheduled times, except for the months of July and December. The duties of the Executive Committee of the Board include providing the CEO with an annual written performance review and making decisions with respect to policy and management of the Corporation when the Board of Directors is not meeting. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the overall day-to-day management and service of the agency. She is assisted by the Chief Nursing Officer who oversees all agency services, and the Chief Financial Officer who oversees all agency finance and human resource issues. The Directors of Philanthropy and Special Events and Volunteers lead the agency fund raising efforts, and the Director of Quality and Research guides all research activities, including the electronic information management that supports this work, Nurses for Newborns is a Missouri organization that also provides services in Tennessee. Tennessee operations are funded exclusively by funding from that region. Nurses for Newborns is not a member of a parent organization, but it does retain affiliation with the United Way of St. Louis and the Tennessee operations maintain affiliation with the United Ways in that region.

7. Provide a list summarizing any pending or final legal proceedings involving you or your company that took place in any court of law, administrative tribunal or alternative dispute resolution process that was filed, settled or gone to final judgment within the last three (3) years. The summary need not disclose confidential information of a disputed allegation of fact or law, but must contain the allegations made and/or contested or findings of the court of law, tribunal or dispute resolution process. Failure to provide a full and accurate summary of legal proceedings may result in rejection of the proposal or termination of any subsequent contract.

Nurses for Newborns was named in a lawsuit along with 8 other defendants for an allegation of failure to hotline. This matter was resolved through settlement and the lawsuit was dismissed in January of 2016 with no admission of liability by Nurses for Newborns and no judgment against NFN or any of its staff.

PROPOSED METHOD OF PERFORMANCE

Response to Contractual Requirements

As suggested in Section 3.6.1, in order to assure the reviewer that Nurses for Newborns meets each contractual requirement, the text that follows enumerates the paragraphs in the Contractual Requirements section of the Request for Proposal and provides a response for each item that requires information from the offeror. This text is then followed by the Exhibits and attachments that provide further detail regarding the agency's qualifications for delivery of service through the proposed contract.

2. CONTRACTUAL REQUIREMENTS

2.1 General Requirements:

2.1.1 General Requirement:

Continuum of care: Based upon its 25 years of providing care to Missouri families through nurse home visitation, and its over 14 years of partnership with the Alternatives to Abortion program, Nurses for Newborns seeks to continue providing coordinated, comprehensive Alternative to Abortion Program services based on the individual needs for women who meet the specified eligibility criteria within Region 6. NFN also seeks to provide services for clients outside Region 6 in Phelps and Dent counties (counties previously served by NFN for the ATA program) if this is deemed appropriate and within the goals of the Office of Administration. NFN will continue to provide these services through its evidence informed nurse home visitation program in ways that ensure the preference of the client in the selection of an ATA provider.

2.1.2 Nurses for Newborns will continue to promote one or more purposes of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. Specifically, NFN promotes the first two purposes.

a. Provide assistance to needy families so that children may be cared for in their own homes or in the homes of relatives:

Nurses for Newborns nurses visit pregnant women and their families in their homes. This allows the nurse to observe, identify, and document nutritional needs of the family. The nurse provides direct assistance of food items (including infant formula, infant food, and food for the family) donated to Nurses for Newborns for the use of families served. In addition, the nurse and other NFN personnel assist the family by linking them with food pantries as well as with governmental food programs such as WIC or Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP).

b. End the dependence of needy parents on government benefits by promoting job preparation, work, and marriage:

In order to ensure the health and safety of newborn infants, Nurses for Newborns helps pregnant women, mothers, and fathers address barriers to securing employment opportunities. This includes helping caregivers secure and use appropriate medical care, obtain necessary education, and acquire transportation, child care, and other supports necessary to find and maintain gainful employment. This includes helping mothers or fathers identify and use community resources that address these needs and prepare them for employment opportunities. NFN also employs licensed social workers to provide counseling services for pregnant women and mothers and fathers who wish to improve their relationship in order to improve the well being of their child. Although this service (not supported by this contract) may facilitate the choice of some individuals to pursue marriage (and the potential economic and other benefits of a two-parent family), the purpose is to help the caregiver(s) ensure the health, safety, and sustained well being of their child.

2.1.3 Nurses for Newborns shall ensure any expenditures claimed to the Alternative to Abortions Program are not claimed to other federal grants to include but not limited to Domestic Violence funding, Title IV-E Foster Care, Title IV-E Adoption Assistance, Home Visitation, Child Care Block Grant, Early Head Start, and other federally reimbursed programs.

2.1.4 Nurses for Newborns agrees to ensure the services provided are not also provided to the client through other TANF or federally funded programs such as MWA, Child Care Assistance, etc.

2.1.5 NFN will ensure that all actions taken by the agency in relation to the ATA contract support the TANF-allowable services:

- a. Parenting Skills Classes;
- b. Child Care;
- c. Housing Assistance (clients are limited to three [3] months of rent or mortgage assistance in a twelve [12] month period);
- d. Residential care;
- e. Emergency shelter;
- f. Utilities (clients are limited to three [3] months of utility assistance in a twelve [12] month period);
- g. Job Training and Placement;
- h. Education Services;
- i. Establishing and Promoting Responsible Paternity;
- j. Case Management Services
- k. Transportation; and
- l. Supplies

2.1.6 Respectful Service Provision:

Because cultural competency is a critical factor that impacts the effectiveness of NFN programs, NFN uses several strategies to ensure language and cultural competency. As noted elsewhere, NFN utilizes nurses who live in and have knowledge of the geographic area in which the family resides. Staffing attempts to ensure racial and ethnic diversity so that nurses or Community Outreach Workers (whose service will not be billed to this contract) better understand and work with the cultural preferences of the families served. Language needs of the clients served are addressed directly by bilingual nurses or Community Outreach Mothers or through the use of interpreters. As a component of the agency's health literacy grant awards, NFN nurses have received training in cultural competence and motivational interviewing. This is addressed as a part of ongoing agency training efforts. The use of mothers of the communities (Community Outreach Workers) to assist with language and cultural issues with African American, Hispanic, and Bosnian communities has also aided NFN in achieving greater cultural competence. Cultural competency and health literacy enhance NFN's primary strength based approach in a way that helps the client achieve identified goals.

2.1.7 24/7 Availability:

The RN/Case Manager provides the client with her cell phone contact number so that the nurse (or the Nurse on Call) can be reached 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. In addition, NFN maintains a "Nurse on Call" emergency response phone on weekends and after hours in order to ensure access to NFN services.

2.1.8 Unless otherwise specified herein, Nurses for Newborns shall furnish all material, labor, facilities, equipment, and supplies necessary to perform the services required herein.

2.2 Eligibility Requirements:

2.2.1 NFN will seek information from the client to determine eligibility for acceptance into the ATA program. Eligibility criteria will include:

- a. Missouri residency
- b. Family income that is at or below 185% of federal poverty level
- c. Be carrying an unborn child or children and is choosing to carry the child to term instead of having an abortion
- d. Is not receiving ATA from any other provider.

2.2.2 As permitted by the contract, NFN may use the following for identification and income documentation:

- 1) Utility bills;
- 2) Driver's licenses;
- 3) Pay stubs;
- 4) Written employer statements; and
- 5) Social Security benefits statements.

2.2.3 Discharge:

NFN will discharge clients accepted into the ATA program per the requirements of the ATA program, with services ending twelve (12) months post-partum, and when services are provided to the client after the child turns one (1) year of age (the day following the child's first birthday) NFN will not be reimbursed by the state agency.

2.2.4 Nurses for Newborns will maintain documentation of eligibility for a minimum of five years for each woman determined eligible.

2.3 General Performance Requirements:

2.3.1 Nurses for Newborns agrees to design and implement a comprehensive Alternatives to Abortion program that includes all of the following services:

a. Assessment Services:

Nurses for Newborns will provide assessment services that include eligibility for services and identification of risk factors and services necessary to minimize the likelihood of abortion and maximize the likelihood that the pregnancy will be carried to term. NFN's credentialed case managers shall perform the assessments, including the initial client risk and needs assessment, domestic abuse screenings, and post-partum depression screenings.

- 1) Initial Client Risk and Needs Assessment and Domestic Abuse Screening – Within twenty-four (24) hours of the client's admission into the Alternative to Abortion program, the NFN's credentialed case manager will conduct an initial assessment, including a screening for domestic abuse, in order to document the risk factors and the services needed to minimize the risk of abortion and to complete the pregnancy. At times, because a client begins with NFN before it is discovered that she qualifies for ATA, the assessment that includes these components is accomplished before enrollment.
- 2) Post-Partum Depression Screenings – Included in the first post-partum visit, Nurses for Newborns Registered Nurse will conduct an assessment for post-partum depression using the Edinburgh Postnatal Depression Screening Scale (EPDS), and for stress utilizing the Everyday Stressors Index. If the client scores in a level requiring additional action, including referral, the nurse will assist the mother with resources to address the depression.
- 3) The client's program eligibility for ATA services is determined upon entry into the program and again at the time the birth of the child(ren).

b. Case Management Services:

Nurses for Newborns will provide case management services that manage the identified service needs of the client in order to minimize the likelihood of abortion and improve the pregnancy outcome. Case management services may be provided by professional or non-credentialed case managers.

c. Prenatal Parent Education and Parenting Skills Training:

Nurses for Newborns will provide Prenatal Parent Education and Parenting Skills Training to each client, which is based on the needs of the client, as determined through the assessments and case management services required herein. Prenatal Parent Education and Parenting Skills Training services shall be provided by credentialed case managers, non-credentialed case managers, or other individuals who have adequate knowledge in the subject being taught.

1) Content of Training:

- Nurses for Newborns will not provide separate prenatal classes directly but will provide ongoing parent education for each client throughout the year of ATA program participation as a component of the home visit. Based on the recommendations of the Academy of Pediatrics and the evidence based Bright Futures curriculum, the content of this training includes all of the items specified in the contract requirement (please see Exhibit F, Item 6).
- 2) If there is a question by the state agency as to the relevancy or accuracy of the material being taught in a Prenatal Parent Education and Parenting Skills Training class, Nurses for Newborns agrees to provide the state agency with copies of the curriculum and/or training materials for state agency approval upon the state agency's request.
 - 3) As noted above, no separate classes will be provided by NFN. The content of the information shared with pregnant women in the home visits is evidence based and noted in Exhibit F. This content includes promotion of cognitive skills, motor skills, valuing and comforting the child.
 - 4) Nurses for Newborns shall include cognitive skills, motor skills, valuing, and comforting of the infant/child in the training.
 - 5) NFN shall provide personnel to provide the Prenatal Parent Education and Parenting Skills Training who have adequate knowledge in the topics to be taught.

d. Responsible Paternity Education:

The nurses may provide home visits on weekends and evenings and coordinate their visits specifically to reach the fathers of infants. Fathers are encouraged to attend home visits with the mother and are invited to listen to the baby's heartbeat with the nurse, prenatally. Handouts are given with pictures showing the baby's growth in the uterus, week-by-week. These are shared with the fathers as well as the mothers. The nurses begin teaching the fathers how important they are to the well being of the mom and baby during pregnancy. After birth, visits are timed to include the father to teach him infant CPR, signs of illness in a newborn, and the dangers of shaking a baby. The father's importance to his baby's life and future are emphasized. These steps are increasingly important in order to engage fathers as the great majority of our clients are unwed parents. For several years, NFN worked closely with the Fathers Support Center in a federal collaborative project. This relationship continues to enhance referrals to programs that encourage responsible paternity.

- 1) If there is a question by the state agency as to the relevancy or accuracy of the material being taught in a Responsible Paternity Education class, Nurses for Newborns agrees to provide the state agency with copies of the curriculum and/or training materials for state agency approval upon the state agency's request.

Although this service (not supported by this contract) may facilitate the choice of some individuals to pursue marriage (and the potential economic and other benefits of a two-parent family), the purpose is to help the caregiver(s) ensure the health, safety, and sustained well being of their child.

EXHIBIT FMETHOD OF PERFORMANCE

The vendor should present a written plan for performing the requirements specified in this Request for Proposal. In presenting such information, the vendor should specifically address each of the following issues:

1. For each geographic region proposed, identify the service location as well as any satellite locations. Describe the geographic proximity of the services being proposed to the majority of clients to be served. Describe how women initially access services and locate the service location/satellite location.

GEOGRAPHIC REGION 6 (Identify the geographic region. If proposing multiple geographic regions, copy and complete this table for each geographic region proposed.)
Identify the service location:	7259 Lansdowne, Suite 100, St. Louis, MO 63119
Identify the satellite location(s)	N/A
Describe the geographic proximity of the services being proposed to the majority of the clients served.
Although NFN maintains its office in St. Louis County, NFN delivers its programs directly in the client's home, which is closer than neighborhood-based services.
Describe how women initially access service and locate the service location/satellite location.
Women access services through referral from health or community organizations, and through direct contact with NFN. By delivering services in the home, the RN/Case Manager has the opportunity to respond to the woman's entire family environment, while at the same time removing transportation barriers, or difficulties in finding a babysitter for other children in the family, which can be barriers to women receiving the services they need.

2. For each geographic region proposed, describe the demographic profile of the at-risk population to be served. Describe outreach strategies for reaching the targeted at-risk population(s), including strategies for addressing the cultural diversity of targeted clients

GEOGRAPHIC REGION 6 (Identify the geographic region. If proposing multiple geographic regions, copy and complete this table for each geographic region proposed.)
Describe the demographic profile of the at-risk population to be served.
The at-risk profile of our population based on referrals in the most recent evaluation period includes Medicaid eligible 73%, single parent 70%, less than 12 years education 24%, pregnancy unintended 42%, drugs 15%, alcohol 4%, medical issues (mom) 31%, medical issues (baby) 31%, psycho/social issues 37%, history of pregnancy problems 14%, and, late prenatal care 11%. NFN nurses serve mothers-to-be, new mothers and infants who are uninsured and underinsured and who typically lack access to the services they need.
The statistical information above notes that abortion rates are high in this region with the highest numbers in St. Louis City and County followed by St. Charles and Jefferson counties. The information also underscores the at-risk condition for infants and their mothers in the proposed region. Teen births, which often present physical and developmental complications for both infant and mother, were significantly higher for several of the counties to be served, some with more than twice the national average of 41.0. Infant mortality in Missouri exceeds the national rate, and is even more severe in several of the counties proposed, with one county over twice the national rate. Perhaps the most striking need that is evident from this information is the safety of Missouri's children, with several counties averaging over 3 or 4 times that national average for child abuse and neglect.

Describe outreach strategies for reaching the targeted population.

Because NFN is a home visiting program, all services reach out to clients in their homes. NFN staff also conduct outreach into the community through on site meetings with clients and staff at Federally Qualified Health Centers, health fairs, and attendance at community meetings and gatherings. In order to address the diverse needs of populations in several counties, most NFN nurses live in the counties served, and cultural and diversity training is provided for NFN home visiting staff. NFN selects staff with cultural or linguistic competence to address the needs of diverse populations, including Community Health Workers who reach out into their immigrant or African American communities, providing information on services at community service sites, schools, faith or cultural facilities, and through direct linkage with members of the community. NFN also participates in collaborations with area health facilities that serve pregnant women, (such as St. Mary 's Health Center and Affinia Health Centers). These collaborations enhance coordinated case management and facilitate the inclusion of pregnant women into NFN services.

3. Describe the marketing of services.

Because NFN has provided in-home nursing services for the past 25 years to residents in the region and has provided ATA services for many years, area medical centers, clinics, and social service agencies refer clients to NFN programs, at times specifying a referral to the ATA program. Nevertheless, NFN recognizes that frequently, women who are pregnant may not access prenatal care or other community services. For that reason, NFN attempts to inform the general community of NFN services through web presence, social media efforts, and other formats made possible through partnerships with other community initiatives (such as the Prenatal Infant Wellness Coalition or the Triumph campaign). As noted above, collaborations with area health facilities that serve pregnant women provide information about NFN services to women receiving services from these facilities. NFN and its services are also featured on regional radio and television programs that highlight community resources. NFN services have been shared with specific communities (Bosnian, Hispanic, Vietnamese), through the individual outreach efforts of agency Community Outreach Workers and through publications in the language of these communities.

4. For each geographic region proposed, identify the site where the Initial Client Intake Assessment will be conducted. Describe how client eligibility will be determined.

GEOGRAPHIC REGION 6
(Identify the geographic region. If proposing multiple geographic regions, copy and complete this table for each geographic region proposed.)
Identify the site where the Initial Client Intake Assessment will be conducted:	Intake is conducted in the NFN office and verified in the client's home.
Describe how client eligibility will be determined.
NFN's Intake Department conducts the initial verification of demographics over the phone at referral, noting whether or not the client meets NFN eligibility standards. The Department then assigns the client a case manager, who further verifies the eligibility requirements at the first home visit. Verification of eligibility generally occurs in the home with the RN Case Manager at the initial or subsequent visits. After engaging the client in a way that encourages trust, including the provision of needed infant or maternal care items, the nurse seeks the client's permission to complete information for possible enrollment in the ATA program. The nurse uses the instruments to guide her assessment and notes the response of the pregnant woman on the forms, using the self-report of the pregnant mother as the basis of the information sought.

5. For each geographic region proposed, provide a detailed description of the case management process. Identify the hours of service, including emergency coverage outside of business hours and weekends.

Case Management Process

Intake/Referral

Clients are referred to the Intake Department during pregnancy through self-referral or through community referrals based on medical, environmental, social or economic risk factors and ineligibility for other home visiting services. Referrals are received either by phone or by fax.

Case Management Processes/Initial Phase

The intake worker receives and inputs the client information into the database, and assigns the client to a nurse in the client's area. All referrals are assigned to a nurse within 48 hours of receiving the referral. All visits are documented and retained in our database for a period of at least 5 years and are then archived.

Our coordinated and comprehensive system assures that each client is:

- Assessed for the risk of abortion and for the need for additional services beyond case management;
- Allowed client-centered decision-making in developing the plan of care;
- Advised of all applicable limitations in advance; and
- Provided case management that links the client with needed services regardless of payment source for these services.

Clients are seen in their homes for a period of 1 or 2 hours or more as needed. Prior to entry into case management for the ATA program, but within the first two weeks of a referral, the RN/Case Manager will complete an Individual Risk and Needs Assessment Form with the client and submit this data to the state within 2 working days. The nurse/case manager also completes the Initial Client Assessment and submits this data to the state within two working days. This plan includes assessment for domestic violence. The most urgent issues and other information are documented in the client's case file.

The RN/Case Manager documents the strategies for client education regarding available services and support systems as well as referrals for services and outcomes of the referrals. This plan also identifies any infant care concerns of the client and nurse, parenting skill needs as determined by the client and nurse, the course of action to address infant care and parenting skill concerns, and special considerations (such as needing visits at certain times.) In addition, pregnant women receive the following education, assessment, and comprehensive written educational materials (in their own language).

1. Education of normal fetal growth and development and normal discomforts of pregnancy.
2. Nutritional assessment/education.
3. Referral/coordination for childbirth classes.
4. Blood pressure/vital signs each visit.
5. Education regarding signs/symptoms of preterm labor.
6. Education re when to call physician.
7. Referral/coordination with smoking cessation/drug treatment programs, if appropriate.
8. Assessment of fetal activity.
9. Specific interventions per doctor's orders.
10. Help identifying factors/lifestyles associated with premature birth/damage to fetus.
11. Help with food, clothing, baby formula, diapers, cribs, and car seats, as needed.

All services are based on the strengths and needs of the family. Home visiting schedules vary by the risk factors and wishes of the families referred. Success of the program is based in the relationship that occurs between the nurse and the client. In order to facilitate that relationship and assist the mother with the achievement of goals, the nurse provides the mother with her agency cell phone number so that she can reach her-or an on-call NFN nurse- at any time. Clients also have access to the agency after hours help line in order to ensure availability of assistance as needed. During the past two years, NFN nurses have been trained in Motivational Interviewing which facilitates building relationships and enhances the effectiveness of those relationships.

Case Management and all other ATA program activity is directed at the accomplishment of specific program goals that correspond to the developmental relationship of the nurse case manager and the client. The primary goal is to maintain pregnancy and produce a healthy baby. The following goals help guide the activity of prenatal care:

Goal #1: To decrease malnutrition due to inadequate diet related to age, environment of neglect due to a lack of support or resources.

Objective #1: To teach components of a balanced diet and its importance, and to assist in obtaining food from NFN or from other resources in the community.

Goal #2: To decrease preterm labor and Small for Gestational Age (SGA) babies due to smoking.

Objective #2: To teach about problems related to smoking and encourage cessation, and to encourage mom to have regular prenatal visits.

Goal #3: To decrease preterm delivery due to preterm labor.

Objective #3: To teach signs and symptoms of preterm labor and encourage medical intervention if signs are noticed.

Goal #4: To decrease or eliminate the use of alcohol during pregnancy.

Objective #4: To teach signs and symptoms related to alcohol abuse during pregnancy and encouraging the client to practice abstinence. To also teach about the alcohol-related problems to the infant.

Goal #5: To eliminate the use of drugs during and after pregnancy.

Objective #5: To teach about the problems drug use causes for both the mom and the infant. To aid the client in accessing drug treatment.

Goal #6: To decrease pregnancy-related illnesses such as gestational diabetes, Pregnancy Induced Hypertension (PIH), and repeat Urinary Tract Infections (UTIs).

Objective #6: To teach the importance of early and regular prenatal visits with the doctor and to teach the signs and symptoms of pregnancy related illnesses and labor.

Case Management Processes; Postpartum Mothers and Infants

In addition to the activity noted above, as the mother returns home from the hospital, the nurse/case manager continues home visits that include:

1. Physical / emotional assessment
2. Assessment of home environment
3. Assessment of attachment/parenting skills
4. Nutritional assessment/educational materials
5. Information on signs of postpartum complications
6. For each geographic region proposed, provide a preliminary list and description of all prenatal and parenting education courses provided by your organization. Indicate the source of the course material taught in each class and identify where each of the required educational components identified in paragraph 2.3.1 c. of the RFP are covered.

NFN does not conduct parenting education or parenting skills training in separate classes. However, NFN nurses provide prenatal education and parenting education and skills training. NFN's Clinical Guidelines for nurse home visits encourage promotion of cognitive skills, motor skills, valuing and comforting the child, and include the following additional topics:

Up to 12 weeks – Prenatal care, Vitamins, Smoking during pregnancy, Alcohol during pregnancy, Healthy diet, Good nutrition, Normal weight gain, Morning sickness.
 12 – 16 weeks – Exercise in pregnancy, Changes in your body, Triple screen test.
 16 – 20 weeks – Back pain, Ultrasound. What does my baby look like?
 20 – 24 weeks – UTI, Preterm labor, Reasons to breastfeed. What does my baby look like?
 24 – 48 weeks – GDM, Anemia, Prenatal classes. What does my baby look like?
 28 – 32 weeks – Birth plan, Preterm labor, Kick counts. What does my baby look like?
 32 – 34 weeks – Pain control, Preeclampsia, Circumcision. What does my baby look like?
 34 – 36 weeks – GBS, Labor signs and when to go to the hospital, Birth control options. What does my baby look like?
 37 – 38 weeks – Preparing for breastfeeding.
 39 weeks – What happens in labor, Safe Sleep following 2011 AAP Recommendations, first postpartum visit.

Additional topics as needed - Life Skills, Rest, STI's, Support System, Domestic Violence, Dental Health, Necessary Baby Items, Choosing a Pediatrician, Fetal Growth & Development.

7. For each geographic region proposed, describe each of the services specified in section 2.3.2 of the RFP. Explain the service delivery system including any referral network and referral plan. Describe the cultural competency of providers.

Additional Client Services

In addition to directly providing the prenatal and newborn services noted in the Case Management section above, the RN/Case Manager ensures care coordination of several additional services identified in the ATA Request for Proposal.

Prenatal Care

In addition to the prenatal care provided by the NFN nurse, the RN/Case Manager and client will work together to coordinate the prenatal care services needed including doctors, health centers, clinics and hospitals. The nurse case manager will ensure client's needs and resources are considered in decisions regarding location of doctor/clinic offices, hospitals, transportation limitations, and also in terms of monetary resources (health insurance, Missouri Health net, etc.). NFN works actively with many medical providers and works actively with the Medicaid HMO organizations to help ensure prenatal services.

Medical Care

The RN/Case Manager works with the client to ensure the client's access and use of a medical home. The RN/Case Manager will ensure that the client's needs and resources are considered in decisions regarding location of doctor/clinic offices, hospitals, transportation limitations, and also in terms of monetary resources (health insurance, Medicaid, etc.). NFN works actively with many medical providers and works actively with the Medicaid HMO organizations to help ensure linkage to primary medical care.

Mental Health Care

As with medical care, the RN/Case Manager and client work together to identify need and facilitate access to mental health services. NFN has noted that approximately 40% of clients in the past two years have had elevated levels of depression. For this reason, the agency has active linkage with regional and local mental health providers including those for acute mental health needs (Such as Behavioral Health Resources). In addition, many NFN nurses have been trained in Problem Solving Therapy, an evidence informed approach to addressing environmental factors that impact depression and other mental health conditions. NFN has social workers who possess the capacity to provide in-home mental health services. The nurse case manager, using NFN's protocol for referral, may draw upon any of these sources to meet the mental health issues of the pregnant woman, mother, father or other caregiver.

Newborn or Infant Medical Care

The RN/Case Manager and client will work together to ensure and coordinate the necessary medical services required by the infant, including doctors, health centers, clinics and hospitals. This is a high priority for NFN nurses. The Case Manager will ensure the caregiver's needs and resources are considered in decisions regarding location of doctor/clinic offices, hospitals, transportation limitations, and also in terms of monetary resources (health insurance, Medicaid, etc.). NFN works in partnership with several medical organizations and actively with many medical providers and works actively with Medicaid HMO organizations to help ensure linkage to medical care.

Adoption Assistance

NFN provides counseling, educational materials, emotional support, and guidance to any client who chooses to pursue this option. NFN may refer any client deciding to put their child up for adoption to Family Resource Center, Lutheran Family Services, and Catholic Services, or other adoption services in the client's area. If requested by the client, NFN RNs will accompany the client to meetings with adoption agencies and prospective adoptive parents.

Child Care

The NFN nurse refers any client needing this service to the appropriate referral agency, which will vary because of the wide geographical area covered. In some areas, NFN works closely with child care providers who are part of collaborative community efforts. In addition, NFN refers clients to organizations that maintain information about day care facilities in the region.

Clothing

Clothing for the infant born is frequently provided directly by the NFN nurse who distributes donated new or gently used clothing for families served by NFN. Clothing assistance for the mother is provided most often by referral to programs in the community such as "Dress for Success."

Domestic Abuse Protection

NFN protocols and training help prepare the nurse case manager to assist the caregiver with issues of domestic abuse, including the development of a safety plan. The nurse provides shelter and domestic violence printed information to the client in a manner that is attentive to the client's home situation. As noted earlier, the nurse remains available 24/7 to assist caregivers and maintains current knowledge of shelters that can assist when needed.

Drug and Alcohol Testing and Treatment

The NFN Nurse maintains information on drug and alcohol testing and treatment centers accessible to the clients served. The nurse provides this information and facilitates the referral as needed.

Education Services

The nurse case manager ensures the client participates in a formal education program designed to allow the client to advance toward a high school diploma, GED, business, vocational, technical training, or college undergraduate degree. Among the resources used by clients, the NFN nurse draws upon those provided by the following:

- Department of Economic Development
- Department of Elementary and Secondary Education
- Coordinating Board of Higher Education
- Department of Social Services
- Community Resources
- Community Action Agencies

Food

The nurse case manager ensures that the client is provided with food relating to pregnancy, newborn care, and parenting, through the WIC and food stamp programs. If needed, the nurse may refer the client to food pantries and/or provide direct food assistance, distributing food items donated for families served by NFN.

Housing

If identified as a client need, the NFN Case Manager helps ensure that the client has housing. The nurse case manager and client will contact the community or government agency(ies) listed below to obtain housing for the client:

- Department of Economic Development
- Department of Labor and Industrial Relations
- Department of Mental Health
- Community Resources
- Community Action Agencies

Other organizations frequently assisting NFN clients include Beyond Housing and Legal Services of Eastern Missouri. In order to ensure a safe place for the mother and child(ren), the nurse case manager may assist the client with emergency shelter, licensed residential care, or housing assistance. NFN has active referral and cooperative service arrangements with several shelters for women and children including Our Lady's Inn and Almost Home.

Utilities:

The Case Manager helps ensure that the pregnant woman is able to maintain critical utilities such as water, gas, and electricity. NFN has in place arrangements with Ameren Missouri, Laclede Gas, and several water companies to assist with preventing shut offs and/or returning services that are currently supported by ATA funds and a special NFN emergency assistance fund.

Job Training and Placement

If identified as a client need, the nurse case manager will help ensure the client is provided with a job training and placement program that facilitates and/or enhances the employability of the client and/or the father of the client's infant who might otherwise not qualify for help. The nurse case manager assists the client in contacting the community or government agency(ies) listed below for obtaining job training and placement program services:

- Department of Economic Development
- Department of Labor and Industrial Relations
- Department of Social Services

Supplies

If identified as a client need, the NFN Nurse case manager will ensure the client is provided with supplies relating to pregnancy, newborn care, and parenting. Most of these supplies will come directly from NFN including diapers, baby wipes, strollers, blankets and many other items to meet the needs of clients. These items are provided through donations to NFN. In addition, if the case manager determined that the client is unable to provide a safe sleep environment for the client's infant, the nurse will ensure that the client is provided with a Pack N' Play which meets the American Academy of Pediatrics' Guidelines.

Transportation

If identified as a client need, the nurse will assist the client with needed transportation in order for the client to access services identified. This may include the purchase of public transportation passes.

Ultrasound Services

The client's physician orders these services and the NFN nurse would assist the client with scheduling these services as needed.

Other Services

If identified as a client need, the NFN RN/Case Manager will ensure that the client is provided with additional client services related to (1) assisting the client in carrying the client's unborn child to term and to assist the client in caring for the client's dependent child(ren) or (2) placing the client's child for adoption.

NFN service delivery system

Nurses for Newborns maintains a list of some 1400 organizations that serve as referral sources for the clients served. A number of these organizations are active collaborators on local, state, or federal projects. Particularly helpful for this opportunity are the networks developed through the county wide tax authorities that link agencies serving children and families. (Children's Service Fund of St. Louis County and Community and Children's Resource Board of St. Charles County are two major networks.) Other networks have developed through collaborative interests of partner agencies (such as Project COPE in Jefferson County, Raising St. Louis, and the 24:1 Project in Normandy, Missouri.) Referral Plan: The nurse case manager utilizes the list of sources located in her computer database to aid the client with the needed information and then may assist the client through follow-up with the agency as needed. The referral and the outcome of the referral are documented in the client's electronic medical record.

Cultural Competency of Providers

Because cultural competency is a critical factor that impacts the effectiveness of NFN programs, NFN uses several strategies to ensure language and cultural competency. As noted elsewhere, NFN utilizes nurses who live in and have knowledge of the area in which the family resides. Staffing attempts to ensure racial and ethnic diversity so that nurses or Community Outreach Workers better understand and work with the cultural preferences of the families served. Language needs of the clients served are addressed directly by bilingual nurses or Community Outreach Workers or through the use of LAMP interpreters. As a component of the agency's health literacy grant awards, NFN nurses have received training in cultural competence and this issue is a part of ongoing agency training efforts. The use of mothers of the communities (Community Outreach Workers) to assist with language and cultural issues with African American, Bosnian, Hispanic, and Vietnamese communities has also aided NFN in achieving greater cultural competence.

8. For each geographic region proposed, describe how your proposed program will provide assistance to needy families so that children may be cared for in their own homes or in the homes of relatives.

Region 6:

Nurses for Newborns's primary goal is to keep infants and their caregivers healthy and safe. NFN monitors the physical, emotional, social, mental health of infants and their caregivers while also assessing the safety of their environments. If there is an issue in any of these areas, NFN ensures that the family receives the resources and support that they need by helping the caregiver navigate through existing resources or referring the family to further help. NFN provides material support, as needed, in the form of diapers, formula, baby clothes, developmentally-appropriate toys, and other necessities for a child's healthy growth and development.

9. For each geographic region proposed, describe how your proposed program will help to end the dependence of needy parents on government benefits by promoting job preparation, work, and marriage.

Region 6:

NFN works with caregivers to ensure the best possible outcome for the infant. This includes educating the caregiver on the benefits of education and employment. NFN provides clients information job preparation programs that increase opportunities for employment, and help families navigate the resources they need to get to these goals. In addition, NFN social workers assist couples who wish to address problematic relationship issues.

10. For each geographic region proposed, describe how your proposed program will reduce the incidence of future out-of-wedlock pregnancies. Include your program's annual numerical goals for preventing and reducing the incidence of these pregnancies.

Region 6:

NFN nurses provide information on the importance of the mother's health between pregnancies, including the safest time to space pregnancies. Nurses also discuss reproductive life plans including birth control with clients (but do not provide contraceptives). Nurses for Newborns tracks the rate of repeat pregnancies, and promote individual and family life choices that sustain the wellbeing of the infant and family. NFN also helps to refer caregivers to sources for healthy relationship educational programming such as Catholic Family Services, Parents as Teachers, and Father Support Center.

11. For each geographic region proposed, describe how your proposed program will encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families.

Region 6:

Nurses for Newborns assesses the health of the infant and caregiver from all angles, ensuring that the environment is conducive to growth and development. When a caregiver expresses an interest in healthy relationship education, NFN's social workers provide services, and at times make referrals to other appropriate agencies.

12. Organizational Chart - The vendor should provide an organizational chart showing the staffing and lines of authority for the key personnel to be used. The organizational chart should include (1) The relationship of service personnel to management and support personnel, (2) The names of the personnel and the working titles of each, and (3) Any proposed subcontractors including management, supervisory, and other key personnel.

The Chart that is found as the first Attachment in the "Attachment" section identifies NFN's nurses who currently provide Alternatives to Abortion services and the relationship of these team members with each other and the management structure of NFN. (Please See Organizational Chart found as the first document in the "Attachment" section of this response.)

13. Along with a detailed organizational chart, the vendor should describe the following:
 - How services of the contract will be managed, controlled, and supervised in order to ensure satisfactory contract performance.

Services are managed, controlled and supervised through the coordinated activity of the Intake department, the assigned nurse, the Chief Nursing Officer (CNO), and the Chief Financial Officer. The family enters the system through Intake where initial client need and program relevance is determined. If the client qualifies by geography and risk factors for the program sponsored by the state agency, the information is referred to the contract coordinator who ensure that the basic contract eligibility requirements are met. The case is then assigned to the nurse serving the geographic area. The nurse visits the family and then begins management of the care of the family. The Chief Nursing Officer (CNO) and nursing supervisors supervise the nurses. Both the nurse and the nursing supervisor confer with the contract manager regarding questions relating to contractual obligations and opportunities. The nurse documents assessments, screenings, patient education and referral electronically. The nurse supervisor uses these notes to monitor the family progress and the nurse's interventions. The nurse also maintains the records related to classes conducted including the list of those attending. All of this information is directed monthly to the Contract Manager who uses it for invoicing and reporting. Overall operations of the contract are reviewed and monitored by the Chief Nursing Officer Ron Tompkins, and financial reports and management are overseen by the agency Chief Financial Officer, Mary Lou March. Melinda Ohlemiller, agency CEO has the final responsibility for all operations and will report to the agency Board of Directors on the contract's performance.

- Total Personnel Resources - The offeror should provide information that documents the depth of resources to ensure completion of all requirements on time and on target. If the offeror has other ongoing contracts that also require personnel resources, the offeror should document how sufficient resources will be provided to the State of Missouri.

In order to provide services to a significant geographic region and meet the obligations of the grants and contracts that help support the cost of service, NFN maintains a staff of 27 direct care nurse case managers, 6 "non-licensed" case managers, 3 Intake/contract staff, and directors of research, technology, and social services in addition to nurse supervisory and administrative staff. The organizational chart included as the first attachment identifies the number and diversity of staff at NFN who will provide services directly or in support of the ATA contract. Although staff provide services for clients in the ATA contract as well as for other contracts, caseloads and support capacity are continually monitored to ensure appropriate levels of staffing to ensure that sufficient resources are provided for this contract with the state of Missouri. Furthermore, because NFN has been providing ATA services for several years and served 146 ATA clients last year, it anticipates continuing its capacity to meet the number of families projected.

14. Economic Impact to Missouri - The vendor should describe the economic advantages that will be realized as a result of the vendor performing the required services. The vendor should respond to the following:
- Provide a description of the proposed services that will be performed and/or the proposed products that will be provided by Missourians and/or Missouri products.
 - Provide a description of the economic impact returned to the State of Missouri through tax revenue obligations.
 - Provide a description of the company's economic presence within the State of Missouri (e.g., type of facilities: sales offices; sales outlets; divisions; manufacturing; warehouse; other), including Missouri employee statistics.

Nurses for Newborns' economic presence in Missouri can be seen in several ways. The agency leases a 9,000 square foot office building in St. Louis County. This facility provides space for NFN's nursing and support staff as well as limited warehouse space for items donated for families served by NFN. The building owner pays taxes to the state of Missouri and St. Louis County. The income that NFN's staff receive provide an even more significant impact on the Missouri economy. Over $2,400,000 of salaries support the 50 staff members who live and shop in Missouri. Lastly, because NFN services have demonstrated their effectiveness in preventing child abuse and neglect, the medical, institutional and legal costs associated with this tragedy are eliminated for families at significant risk. Cost analysis for the economic impact of nurse visitation finds that every dollar spent in this prevention activity results in $5.00 in savings to the community. (Brookings, 2011) Nobel Prize winner, Dr. James Heckman notes that interventions at this earliest phase of development provide the most dramatic return on investment, impacting infant health, as well as child educational and adult earning potential. (The Heckman Equation, 2016)

15. For each geographic region proposed, the vendor should indicate the estimated number of clients the vendor anticipates serving annually for non-residential services and residential care services.

GEOGRAPHIC REGION	ESTIMATED ANNUAL NUMBER OF NON-RESIDENTIAL CLIENTS TO BE SERVED	ESTIMATED ANNUAL NUMBER OF RESIDENTIAL CARE CLIENTS TO BE SERVED
6	180 clients	0

*Please note: Although NFN has identified a projected cost for this service (if such service needs to be supported by ATA funds awarded to NFN), previous experience with the program for the last several years has not required the use of ATA funds for this purpose. However, NFN frequently works with clients who do use Residential Care Services. If the services are needed, the NFN RN refers the client, often helping to make the arrangements for the client's admission to the Residential Care facility. The facilities have not required use of NFN funds - from ATA or any other source. However, some of these facilities are ATA funding recipients and use their ATA funds for the purpose of providing residential care services.

EXHIBIT G

IMPLEMENTATION OR READINESS PLAN

Implementation or Readiness Plan - The vendor should sequentially list and briefly describe the tasks or events proposed for the implementation of the required services. If no tasks or events are required, the vendor should provide a statement of readiness. For each task/event identified, the vendor should identify the number of days required to complete the task/event, the personnel proposed to perform the task/event, and the number of work hours for each person.

- Completion Day should be specified as a certain number of days from state agency authorization to proceed with services until completion of the specific task and should be expressed as calendar days, not specific dates.
- Assigned Personnel should be identified by name rather than project title unless such personnel are yet to be hired.
- Workhours should indicate that time each assigned person will spend on the specific task.

[illegible]

EXHIBIT HCLIENT SCENARIO

The vendor should present a written narrative which demonstrates the method or manner in which the vendor proposes to satisfy the requirements of the Request for Proposal to conduct Alternatives to Abortion Program services for the client scenario described below. The vendor should provide a total price with a price analysis for the client services identified in the narrative.

Jessica Smith has recently graduated from high school. She wants to pursue a career as a high school English teacher. She has applied and been accepted as an incoming freshman at a local college.

Jessica has just learned that she is six weeks pregnant. She does not currently have a job, and her boyfriend, also a recent high school graduate, is also unemployed. They are both 18 years of age and had planned to get an apartment together. Neither one of them has monetary support from their families.

Jessica currently lives 15 miles from the contractor's service location, but does not have a vehicle. If she continues with her higher education plans at the local college, she will be 30 miles away from the local college. She has contacted your organization and is unsure of her decision to parent or adopt.

Narrative:

Jessica hears from her cousin that Nurses for Newborns helps pregnant women and babies, so she calls Nurses for Newborns to see what they can do to help her. She speaks with NFN's Intake Coordinator, who secures information on Jessica's risks and information on the location of her home. Additionally, the Intake Coordinator inquires after Jessica's connections with federally supported programs, including MO HealthNet Prenatal Case Management, Building Blocks of Missouri, Healthy Families Missouri Home Visiting Program, and Healthy Start program. Hearing that Jessica has availed herself of none of these options, the Intake Coordinator makes a note in Jessica's intake. After verifying Jessica's eligibility for ATA, the Intake Coordinator assigns Jessica to her nurse/case manager, Caroline, who lives in the same area. After accepting the referral, Jessica's intake information is electronically made accessible to Caroline's computer.

Within 24 hours of receiving Jessica's referral, Caroline contacts Jessica to discuss what NFN does and explains the ATA program. Caroline and Jessica schedule an appointment in order to conduct an initial assessment, and home visit. Caroline and Jessica work together to ensure Jessica feels well-informed about the program and is willing to participate. As per ATA guidelines, Caroline conducts an initial assessment to address any of Jessica's urgent issues. Jessica shares that she has considered the possibility of having her baby adopted. Caroline informs Jessica that there are agencies that would be able to assist her with the adoption process. Because Jessica mentioned that her family was Lutheran, Caroline advises Jessica of adoption services that correspond to Jessica's faith heritage-and gives Caroline the number to reach Lutheran Family and Children's Services. However, Jessica shares that she would really like to keep her baby. Caroline asks her what is preventing her from doing this.

Jessica shares that she is in need of transportation. Caroline advises Jessica that her college has a program in which all students receive free transit passes after enrollment. Caroline goes on to discuss the procedures for securing the transit pass with Jessica, and helps her to follow through with the steps in the process.

Next, Caroline follows up with Jessica regarding the Intake Coordinator's references to MO HealthNet Prenatal Case Management, Building Blocks of Missouri, Missouri Community-Based Home Visiting Program. Caroline identifies any barriers that have prevented Jessica from accessing these programs and assists her with making phone calls to the appropriate offices and arranging for transportation, if necessary.

Caroline makes her first home visit with Jessica within one week of receiving her referral. At the first visit, Jessica and Caroline talk about Jessica's expectations of the program and her reasons for contacting Nurses for Newborns. Jessica informs Caroline that at this time, she would rather keep her baby and not proceed with an adoption. Caroline thanks Jessica for her thoughtful concern for her baby and shares that if she thinks differently later, the service she noted is still available. Next, Caroline collects information about Jessica and performs routine medical checks including blood pressure, weight, and an overall systems review. Caroline assesses Jessica's support system as well as the overall health and safety of Jessica's environment including a domestic violence assessment and notes any materials or resources that Jessica needs for her health and safety or, as her pregnancy progresses, for the health and safety of her baby. Caroline also speaks with Jessica about the resources available to her through her community health centers, government assistance programs (especially WIC, and the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program), and initially assists her with making the initial phone call to MoHealthNet and her local health department for access to these programs. Caroline also confirms that Jessica's college has provided the transit pass and that Jessica understands how to use it. Caroline then helps Jessica to access the transit map and informs her of which stops will get her to the appropriate offices so Jessica can complete paperwork for enrollment.

After the initial visit, Caroline monitors and documents Jessica's progress with her pregnancy, overall physical and mental well-being, and material needs in the electronic medical record. As Jessica expressed her need for housing in a more central location, Caroline works within the Nurses for Newborns system to help Jessica find affordable housing in an area closer to her college. After Caroline helps Jessica to find a location Jessica feels comfortable and safe with, Caroline discusses Jessica's next step. Because Jessica is unemployed, she does not have sufficient funds to submit a down payment on the apartment. Caroline accesses ATA funds only after all other existing agency and community resources have been exhausted.

Caroline discusses the financial aid process with Jessica and helps her to apply. As Jessica has no income or assistance from her parents, she is eligible for enough aid to cover tuition, books, and fees. An additional work-study may be available to Jessica to cover the living costs associated with attending school (rent, utilities, etc). Caroline helps her to apply for the position, which will provide sufficient funds until Jessica's boyfriend is able to find a job. Should any additional needs for rent, utility, or transportation assistance arise, Caroline will again work within the NFN structure to provide Jessica with the resources she needs, referring to ATA funds only when all other sources have been exhausted.

Jessica's boyfriend is present for their next visit, and Caroline, Jessica, and the boyfriend discuss plans for the pregnancy, addressing Jessica's most urgent needs (e.g. rental assistance, securing governmental assistance, and prenatal care), setting measurable goals (e.g. exercising 2x week and eating fresh foods), identify information Jessica needs and develop strategies for obtaining it (e.g. childcare options, how to enroll for WIC, etc) and outcomes goals for referrals (e.g. schedule and keep 3 appointments/month with appropriate agencies). Jessica's boyfriend expresses an increasing interest in how to best take care of the baby when he or she is born, so Caroline provides him with some paternal education materials. Before concluding their visit, Caroline works with Jessica to schedule their next visit, reminds Jessica that she is available to her 24/7, and provides Jessica and her boyfriend with a business card containing her contact information and on-call cell phone number. Carolyn encourages Jessica to secure prenatal care services and helps Jessica select a local provider that provides prenatal care. Transportation to the first visit is discussed, and using the college's transportation program, Jessica will be able to make the trip to the WIC office.

After their meeting in the first month, Caroline and Jessica (and occasionally Jessica's boyfriend) continue to meet monthly throughout the duration of her pregnancy, and at each visit they move through NFN's evidence-based parent education curriculum. Through this process and their time together, Jessica learns valuable skills such as nutrition management, pain management during labor, relaxation techniques, self-care, and problem-solving strategies. As Jessica's due date nears, Caroline obtains any items needed through Nurses for Newborns' donation bank (e.g. clothing, diapers, bassinets/cribs, breast pumps, formula, etc). Caroline also explores Jessica's understanding of the relationship of the infant's father. Jessica shares that the relationship is generally positive, but the couple's stress of being young future parents may put a strain on their relationship in the coming future. Jessica explains that the father has obtained a good source of employment, but due to her school schedule, their downtime is spent watching television, so the couple does not spend quality time together. Caroline reviews the benefits of the father's involvement, and Jessica's hope for a two-parent family. She asks if Jessica would be willing to speak with one of NFN's social workers trained in couples counseling, and Jessica agrees.

Once Jessica's baby arrives, Caroline contacts her to schedule a visit within 72 hours of their hospital discharge. Jessica's baby has no medical concerns that require additional attention, but Jessica is anxious due to her being a young mother. At the home visit, Caroline assesses the baby's height, weight, feeding habits, and other health indicators to ensure the child is healthy and help Jessica to know when to call her or the doctor. Additionally, Caroline continues to assess Jessica's mental wellness using the Edinburgh Post Partum Depression Screen. Jessica's score is higher than the acceptable range so Caroline encourages Jessica to access a local mental health service to help her maintain her health at a time that is very frequently problematic for many mothers. Reluctantly, Jessica agrees, and continues to discuss these options with Caroline. Caroline informs Jessica that additional mental health resources are available to her through Jessica's college, at no cost to Jessica, but Jessica expresses her interest in a resource more attuned to new mothers. Caroline discusses these options with Jessica, and Jessica selects a provider that accepts MOHealth Net.

At each home visit, Caroline answers Jessica's questions regarding feeding, diaper changes, understanding what her baby needs and when, and reassures her about her ability as a mother. Caroline assists Jessica in making her appointments with the pediatrician, and makes sure that Jessica understand which transit stops will be easiest for her to access the pediatrician's office. Jessica and Caroline review SIDS prevention strategies (e.g. placing the baby on his back to sleep, eliminating use of pillows in the crib; not allowing any choking or suffocation hazards near baby's face), the Safe Homes checklist provided by Washington University, diapering and feeding skills, and infant CPR. Caroline also refers Jessica to her local Parents-as-Teachers program and assists her with making the initial phone call. Caroline reviews crib safety and uses the American Academy of Pediatrics materials to assess infant sleep safety. Caroline then secures a safe Pack N Play bed that was given to Nurses for Newborns and gives it to Jane to help ensure the infant's sleep safety.

For the first month of the baby's life, Caroline visits with Jessica once per week to ensure both she and her baby are healthy, safe and well cared for. Once Jessica is comfortable with doing so (in month 2 of the baby's life), Caroline decreases her visits to 2x/month. Once Jessica and her baby reach a point of stability (in the fourth month), visits continue on a monthly basis. Throughout their time together, Caroline remains on call 24/7 should Jessica need any assistance, advice, or support.

As the baby grows and develops, Caroline conducts developmental assessments using the ASQ-III to ensure his growth and development is on track and identify any special needs as early as possible. Throughout her visits, Caroline monitors the attachment levels of bonding between Jessica and the baby, completing HOME inventories according to NFN's guidelines. In alignment with NFN's outcomes, Caroline also educates Jessica on the importance of getting her baby's immunizations on schedule and follows up with Jessica's doctors to ensure the immunizations are taking place. She encourages Jessica to maintain the "medical home," where she and her child can continue to develop a relationship with a physician team and have access to quality care. Through Caroline, Jessica is able to access age-appropriate books for her child through the donation-based NFN Lending Library. Through this program, Caroline brings books from the NFN office to Jessica's home. Once finished with the books, Jessica returns them to Caroline at the next visit and is loaned new books in their place. Caroline also advises Jessica to connect with her local library. With Caroline's encouragement, Jessica continues her baby medical visits with the assistance of the infant's father who is willing to accompany Jessica and the baby when he is not at his part time employment.

Once her baby reaches 6 months of age, Jessica and Caroline begin their termination plan from the ATA program. Caroline and Jessica work together to identify community programs to assist Jessica with any remaining needs, sometime addressing issues through phone calls between visits. At the end of the service period, Jessica and her baby remain safely housed, have established a medical home, have received all scheduled immunizations, have made no inappropriate emergency room visits, and have had no substantiated reports of child abuse or neglect. Jessica has remained motivated to finish her college degree, and has been trained in relaxation and problem solving techniques. Jessica has demonstrated appropriate care of her infant, helping the baby to grow and develop physically and socially. Jessica has been connected with PAT and other community resources and government assistance programs and knows how to access them. Although Jessica becomes ineligible for ATA service at the end of the 12th month of NFN ATA service, Jessica plans to continue with the NFN program so that the nurse can continue to visit her periodically for a few more months and remain available for assistance as her infant continues to develop and as Jessica continues her educational career through her college.
